Investigative Narrative

On the above date and time 13a (Myers/Leary) received information from a pass proven reliable confidential informant that a drug transaction was going to take place at the Cumberland Farms parking lot between 1030 hours and 1130 hours this date. These officers were given the information that the suspect was going to be a black male driving a red Plymouth Voyager bearing Delaware registration PC47820, and is to be delivering a quarter ounce of crack-cocaine to another unknown black male in the parking lot of Cumberland Farms.

At 1030 hours this date these officers were parked across the street from the Cumberland Farms parking lot, awaiting a call from the confidential informant to advise these officers that the suspect was present. At this time 17a (Chorlton/Curry) were also present, at which point Ptlm.Chorlton was conducting surveillance on the parking lot, awaiting the described suspects vehicle. At 1107 hours this date, the C.I. informed these officers that the suspects vehicle was at the location, at which point Ptlm.Chorlton also confirmed same. At this time these officers entered the Cumberland Farms parking lot in a marked patrol unit, and observed a black male exiting the described red Plymouth Voyager. At this time the suspect (Burbage,Knowlington D.O.B 01-07-63) was approached by these officers and taken into custody and pat searched for officer safety by Ptlm.Myers. At this time Ptlm.Myers recovered a clear sandwich bag containing two clear knottedbags containing an off white chunky substance from the suspects groin area of his pants and $421.00 U.S.C from his front left pocket. D-1 was then advised that he was under arrest. When D-1 was asked what was in the bag, he stated a lot of crack. At this time D-1 and his vehicle was transported to Central without incident.

At Central the substance found on D-1 tested positive for crack-cocaine and had a preliminary weight of 15.9 grams, same was tagged and turned over to records division. The money on D-1 ($421.00 U.S.C) was seized and also turned over to records division. D-1 was then read his Miranda warnings and asked if he had any statements. At this time D-1 stated that he found the crack-cocaine, and stated that he knew he could sell it to somebody and that he was going to meet the person at the Cumberland Farms. D-1 had no further statements. At this time D-1 was booked on the above listed chargesand turned over to the turn-key. D-1's motor vehicle was towed by Tow Zone at Central, impound number 32980.

It should be noted that this incident occurred in the State Of Delaware, County Of New Castle. These officers are sworn members of the Wilmington Department of Police. These officers were acting in said capacity during this incident.
